Summary

I am a fourth-year student at Florida A&M University. I have been in several roles of leadership within my school and in other professional endeavors. I have an unwavering passion for designing creative, inviting, and harmonious spaces for people and nature to coexist. I pride myself on leadership, honesty, and consistently exceeding expectations. I love providing new perspectives on more efficient ways to do things, as well as learning about new perspectives. I am a very fluid person with just enough rigidity to make something "stick." Lastly, I am as practical as I am creative.

FIRST YEAR STUDENTS

CLARKE DENNIS

PROFILE

Outstanding and driven Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM) Program student with specialized Engineering and Architecture skills with a wide variety of interests and experiences. I am passionate about expanding my professional qualities in creative and visually/spatially manipulating careers. This drives my pursuit of a degree in Architecture and my interest in film.

EXPERIENCE

Big Bend Habitat for Humanity 2024- Present

Volunteer

Volunteering for Big Bend has allowed me to be in the shoes of a construction worker. The volunteers are given the opportunity to build the frame of the house, apply sheathing to the walls, install insulation, and finish decorative touches! Big Bend has helped me bridge the gap between the design process and the construction process.

Chick-Fil-A

Team Member

2023 - Present

I work with a team to deliver successful customer satisfaction by embodying Chic-Fil-A's mission statement. Engaging in sales, performing in-depth customer service/hospitality, working under pressure, and maneuvering culinary machinery were essential to working in the restaurant. Working as a team member, I developed a sense of urgency, the importance of effective communication, leadership roles, and having the confidence to engage in conversations with a variety of individuals.

Washington-Alexandria Architecture Center Program

2023

Student

This opportunity, through Virginia Tech's Masters program, allowed me to physically and academically experience the work, effort, and purpose of being an architect and/or architecture major. Indulging in collaborative model drafting, being introduced to local architects and firms, and learning the different challenges you face as a rising architect.

Harvard Academies - Business Management Program

2023

Student

I learned from active Harvard students about the skills and techniques used to maintain a successful business. The program highlights and teaches tactics used throughout the business industry. I was tasked with a group project. The vividly informative course prepares you to give proper consultation to a failing or uprising business. The project creates a deep dive into the life of a consultant.

Peer Forward

Event Coordinator

2022-2024

I curated, organized, and was responsible for the events my team hosted. This involves drafting ideas and organizing pitches for the staff and faculty to approve. The core motive of the events was to increase collegiate engagement among high school students. In addition, bridging the gap between senior graduation and post-secondary opportunities.
