

DWIGHT DAVID EISENHOWER TRANSPORTATION FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM (DDETFP)

The DDETRP managed by the Federal Highway Administration (FHWA) office of Technical Services through Florida A& M University is inviting all Junior, Seniors and Graduate students from the majors listed below to apply for this fellowship. The maximum amount the students can receive is up to $10,000

Arts and Sciences Architecture, Biology, Chemistry Communication, Computer Science Criminal Justice, Environmental Science Information Systems, Logistics Mathematics, Public Administration Physics	Engineering Chemical Engineering, Civil Engineering Construction Engineering, Engineering (General), Electrical Engineering, Electronic Engineering Environmental Engineering, Geotechnical Engineering, Manufacturing Engineering Mechanical Engineering, Structural Engineering Transportation Engineering
Business Accounting, Business Administration, Finance, Economics, Management	Law Environmental Transportation
Human Development Human Factors, Human Resources, Psychology	Public Policy and Planning Public Policy & Analysis Public Administration Political Science/Government Urban and Regional Planning Urban Studies
Transportation Logistics Management Planning Policy

Application forms can be found on the School of Architecture and Engineering Technology website. Submit your applications by email to doreen.kobelo@fam.u.edu. The application deadline is 08/17/2022 at 11:59pm. There will be an two info sessions via Zoom August 12, 2022 and August 15, 2022 from 4:30 pm – 5:30 pm . Register in advance for this meeting by clicking here. For more information please contact Dr. Doreen Kobelo at 850 599 8601 or via email at doreen.kobelo@fam.u.edu or Dr. Shonda Bernadine at 850 410 6393 or via email at bernadin@eng.fam.u.fsu.edu

Recipient awards will be based on the ranking given and available funding